

ANDREW HEINTZMAN
President of Investeco Capital
& Green Economy Advocate

Andrew Heintzman is the president and co-founder of Investeco Capital, the first Canadian investment firm to be exclusively focused on environmental sectors. Heintzman is also the Chair of the Premier's Climate Change Advisory Panel for the Province of Ontario.

Andrew Heintzman speaks about building an innovative green economy in Canada. He is a firm believer that if we encourage a green economy, we can have both economic growth and environmental sustainability. By evaluating a number of sectors that are in transition - from forestry to electricity to oil, gas and agriculture – Heintzman helps to shed some light on how entrepreneurs and organizations are leading a transition to a greener economy.

Prior to founding Investeco, Heintzman was the co-founder and publisher of Shift Magazine. He is the co-editor of Fueling the Future: How the Battle Over Energy is Changing Everything, Feeding the Future: From Fat to Famine, and Food and Fuel: Solutions for the Future, published by the House of Anansi Press. His latest book, The New Entrepreneurs, was published in June 2010.

Heintzman sits on a number of corporate boards, including Lotek Wireless, Triton Logging and Horizon Distributors. Additionally, he is on the board of directors of the Tides Canada Foundation, and the Steering Committee of Sustainable Prosperity.
