

International Relations and Marketing – Staff Bio

JULIE PRICE

780-422-7194

julie.price@gov.ab.ca

Julie is currently working with the Russia, India and Middle East markets as an International Relations Officer. She works with industry and governments to promote trade and develop strong working relationships. She also coordinates senior level incoming and outgoing missions.

Born in Liverpool, United Kingdom, she has lived and traveled extensively in Europe. She completed her Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and International Politics at London School of Economics and London Guildhall University. She also possess an International Trade Certificate from the Forum of International Trade Training.

Previous trade experience includes working at the Italian Trade Centre, London where she assisted Italian manufacturers promote their products internationally. She also worked with an international shipping company that was based in Korea. Julie is currently working towards becoming a Certified International Trade Professional.