

Lorraine Mack Liboiron Western Artist

Western Art 4-H Fundraiser

Life on top of the "Rainy Hills" near Jenner, Alberta provides Lorraine Mack Liboiron with much of her inspiration. Her ability to capture those "small quiet moments" of prairie life, has endeared her to many folks who have a present or past connected to farming and ranching. Well known for her Pen and Ink, or "crosshatching" pictures, many of her works feature children and animals as they step into the world of "wonder". Besides her pen and ink, Lorraine also works with acrylics, oils, watercolor and colored pencil.
