

BIO – LANA GUDMUNDSON

In September 2008, Lana Gudmundson joined the International Marketing Division of Agriculture, Food and Rural Development as the Trade Development Officer for Japan. In this role, Lana assists Alberta agri-food companies by providing market information and business opportunities to expand their business into the Japanese market.

Lana's previous work experience includes the promotion of entrepreneurship and skills training while working at the Young Americas Business Trust in Washington, D.C., as well as international trade development while working for the Embassy of Canada in Tokyo, Saskatchewan Trade and Export Partnership in Regina, and Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada in Calgary. Her travels have included locations in Asia, South America and Europe.

Lana obtained a B.A. in International Studies from the University of Saskatchewan as well as a Graduate Diploma in International Management from the Asia Pacific Management Co-operative Program of the McRae Institute of International Management in Vancouver.