

4-H is a youth organization committed to developing outstanding leaders with marketable skills to succeed in today's society.

Through the efforts of a dedicated provincial network, 4-H offers programs, trips, awards and scholarships for members, leaders and families.

A PLACE FOR EVERYONE

With more than 440 established clubs across the province, you can be part of 4-H wherever you live. Members are between the ages of 9 and 20, and leaders must be 18 or older.

Meetings are held once or twice a month for participants to share knowledge, socialize and build friendships. In addition, many clubs take part in community events and recreational activities.

THE 4-H BENEFIT

According to the "Measures of Success" Survey conducted by Ipsos Reid:

- 31% of alumni have completed a university degree, certificate or diploma compared to 16% nation-wide
- 59% of alumni have a household income over $50,000 compared to 45% nation-wide
- 85% of alumni recommend membership
- 88% of leaders surveyed say the key goals and objectives of 4-H are relevant to today's youth
- 89% of the leaders surveyed say the 4-H program is beneficial or very beneficial to youth in terms of contributing to their personal or career experiences later in life
