

Specialty Chemical Ingredient Initiative (SCI)

- Helping to build a globally competitive plant-based cosmetic & personal care ingredient industry in Alberta
- Market-driven systems approach –high value-added opportunities
- Collaboration with value chain partners from Alberta and International cosmetic firms, research institutions, government, industry organizations, growers and funders
- Alberta and International Industry Strategic Advisors (senior executives & CEOs) provide valuable insight and expertise to SCI Team

How does the SCI Team collaborate with commercial companies and industry ?

For more information and to receive the SCI E-update/newsletter please contact:

Kathy Lowther, SCI Initiative Lead
Alberta Agriculture and Rural Development
Alberta, Canada
Email: kathy.lowther@gov.ab.ca

- Partnering on mutually beneficial projects (R& D, Applied Research, Commercialization, Market Development, Investment Facilitation, Opportunity Analysis)
- Connecting industry to opportunities in Alberta through Business/R&D Forums , incoming and out-going investment missions
- Showcasing research capabilities and platform technologies in Alberta
- Win-Win is to develop plant based ingredient processing in Alberta, while enabling companies to generate profitable sales based on renewable, sustainably grown resources

