Policy Statement

The Agricultural Service Board (A.S.B.) will promote the adoption of environmentally sustainable agriculture practices by supporting the efforts and activities of the Central Peace Conservation Society (C.P.C.S.) with financial and technical support subject to available resources.

Procedure

1. The Agricultural Fieldman shall assist the C.P.C.S. manager with the planning, coordinating, and implementing of the society programs as time permits.
2. The A.S.B. may apply for government funding on behalf of C.P.C.S. as is applicable. This funding shall be used to offset society expenses and project costs.
3. The A.S.B. shall provide C.P.C.S., at no charge, any A.S.B. rental equipment to be used on association projects or activities. The society shall follow A.S.B. agricultural equipment rental policy for booking out equipment.
