Canadian Bison and Farmed Wapiti Meat

Canadian Rangeland Bison is a wholesale marketer of premium farmed wapiti and bison meat. All animals are born and raised in Western Canada and processed in central Alberta. All the meat is guaranteed free of antibiotics and artificial growth promotants.

We offer a wide variety of cuts, as well as a limited selection of further processed or value added products.

Canadian Rangeland Bison and Elk is a Canadian family-owned company with headquarters in Lacombe, Alberta, and has been in business for over 15 years. Canadian Rangeland Bison & Elk has products that are globally marketed and is supported by over 100 family farms throughout Western Canada.

All harvesting and processing is conducted exclusively at Canadian Premium Meats in Lacombe. This facility is federally inspected (HACCP) and approved for exports to the United States, Switzerland and the European Union. Canadian Rangeland's markets include North America and Europe.
