

Managing Information/Genomics for Profit Tour

To register call the Ag-Info Centre at 1-800-387-6030

Wednesday, August 26, 2015, a one day summer tour to highlight new technologies and tools to improve long term profitability of the beef industry, via visiting with purebred, commercial cow/calf, and feedlot operations that are managing information/genomics, selecting for economically relevant traits & improving carcass quality.

Agenda

8:45 a.m.	Registration/Coffee & Doughnuts hosted by Foothills Auctioneers Inc. Stavely
9 a.m.	Profiting from Information Management, Cattle Handling & Carcass Quality at the Feedlot , Leighton Kolk
10 a.m.	How HerdTrax, Sire Verification and Carcass Data can be Used in Cow/calf Herds , Larry Sears, Flying E Ranch, and Bill & Larissa Newton
11 a.m.	Using Genetics and Genomics to Raise the Bar , David & Dyce Bolduc, Cudlobe Angus
12 a.m.	Noon Bag Lunch (Sunshine Café Stavely) on the Bus
1:30 p.m.	Applying Genomics on the Ranch - Selecting for Economically Relevant Traits , Tom Lynch-Staunton, Livestock Gentec and Jim Lynch-Staunton, Antelope Butte Ranch
2:30 p.m.	Real Time Animal Movement Project , Brad Smith, Alberta Agriculture and Forestry
3 p.m.	Coffee/Refreshment Break at Sierra West Cabins & Ranch Vacations Ltd.
3:30 p.m.	Genetically Targeting the Grass-fed Market , Jim Palmer, Quantum Genetics
4 p.m.	Results of the Western Canadian Cow-Calf Survey , Pat Ramsey, Alberta Agriculture and Forestry
4:30 p.m.	Genomic Tests Available and Select Vac Gold Program - Dr. Les Byers, Zoetis Animal Health
5 p.m.	Bar-B-Q Dinner at Sierra West Cabins & Ranch Vacations Ltd. - Dinner speaker, Brent Diffley of AgriClear, Cattle Marketing System.
6 p.m.	Homeward bound (back to Foothills Auctioneers Inc.)

Registration Fee: $50/person

Pre-registration is required. Coffee/doughnuts, bag lunch, water/soft drinks, steak dinner provided

Registration Deadline: Friday, August 21, 2015. To register call: The Ag-Info Centre 1-800-387-6030

We gratefully acknowledge support from the following organizations in promoting this event:

